Script

NORTH WIND: I am the North Wind. People say I am cold, but to you I will always bring the warmest of winds because you have been true—blue Cub Scouts and Webelos Scouts and have lived up to the Law of the Pack.

SOUTH WIND: I am the South Wind. I wish you good Scouting. Over hill and dale I have carried stories of you and your experiences. as Cub Scouts and Webelos Scouts you have been happy, game, and fair — a credit to your Den and Pack.

EAST WIND: I am the east wind. I wish you well. I have spread the story of your fun and happiness in Cub Scouting with Pack ____ and of how you lived up to the Cub Scout Promise and were fair and helpful.

WEST WIND: I am the West Wind. I would like everyone present to know that these graduating Webelos Scouts did not walk the Cub Scout trail alone. Each had the wonderful help and guidance of his parents. Parents, continue to help your Scouts go and grow!

ALL WINDS (IN UNISON): We will be with you forever. We wish you the best of luck in your travels and experiences on the Scouting trail.

The parents join the Scouts. The Scouts and parents advance to the left front of the stage.

CUBMASTER: leads the Webelos, in unison, in the Cub Scout Promise then calls to the Boy Scouts: Hello Boy Scouts.

SCOUTMASTER(S): Hello Webelos Scouts of Akela, what do you desire?

CUBMASTER: We have Webelos Scouts of Akela's council who have prepared themselves for entrance into the council ring of Troop(s) _____.

WEBELOS DEN LEADER: An important part of your Webelos Scout uniform is your neckerchief. Now that you are leaving our Pack and cub Scouting, will you remove your neckerchief and give it to me? Your new Scoutmaster will place about your neck the neckerchief of the Troop you are joining.

(The Webelos Scout removes his neckerchief and gives it to the Webelos Den Leader.)

(Name of Scout), you have contributed much to your Den and Pack and we shall miss you and your parents. Now you are leaving us to enter the Boy Scouts with Troop _____. There you will continue to grow in Scouting skills and friendships.

The Scoutmaster now beckons the graduates and their families to cross the bridge.

SCOUTMASTER (after crossing the bridge): As Scoutmaster of Troop _____, I welcome you and your parents. Now it is a pleasure to present you the neckerchief of our Troop. Wear it with pride as many have done before you.
